Dear Robert:

The deadline to file for an opposition against FORBES is March 22, 2009. I have not yet received your draft coexistence agreement. I can file a third and final extension with the USPTO but need to get your consent (or else request an extension due to extraordinary circumstances). In light of the fact that we have both verbally agreed to reach an agreement, will you consent to such an extension?

Please note that I will be out of town until March 18, 2009. My outside counsel, Susan Kohlmann, has advised me that it will take her firm at least five days to prepare an opposition against FORBES. Please let me know immediately whether you agree to an extension. If I do not hear from you by this Friday, March, 13, 2009, I will assume that a coexistence agreement and/or your consent to extend the deadline will not be forthcoming and I will immediately notify Ms. Kohlmann to prepare the opposition against your client.

Thanks,

Lo-Mae

Of course. Forbes consents to the further extension of time so that we may complete the task at hand. I have a preliminary draft of the agreement and need client input before I send it to you.

Thanks.
Bob.
